

The China Threat

Part IV

China now rises even more threateningly as America's greatest geopolitical rival, promising to dominate the world within a decade.

Security experts see a strange and sudden surge of more than 36,000 illegal entrants at the southern border, the acquisition of vast tracts of American farmland, close coordination with drug cartels, the proliferation of illegal "police stations" on US soil, and loud daily promises to invade Taiwan. Hudson Institute foreign policy fellow JOSH BLOCK and artist and activist WEIMING CHEN join Edwin for an update on the China Threat, plus CAROLYN GLICK updates us on WWJ.
